BME Growth, present on International Women's Day

For the fourth consecutive year, the Spanish Stock Exchange has promoted a Ring the Bell for Gender Equality event.

After this symbolic ceremony and the respective speeches, a round table was held entitled “The differentiating role of women in financial markets”, moderated by Beatriz Alonso, Head of BME Exchanges, and in which participated, among others, Carlota Pi, co-founder and CEO of Holaluz, a company listed on BME Growth.

BME Growth as a real alternative financing source

The eagerness to grow, the greater professionalization in managing SMEs or the possibility of listing before going public into a senior Exchange are factors that have contributed to the fact that more companies choose to be listed on BME Growth to raise finance.

The event organized by Banco Sabadell, with the participation of Jesús González, managing director of BME Growth, overviewed the possibilities and advantages offered by this market as a financing alternative tool. This event was complemented with the introduction of the tech firm Soluciones Cuatroochenta as a success story.

The value of being listed for small and medium-sized enterprises

BME Growth represents a potential investment alternative as it is the stock exchange for SMEs, the best market for growing companies, an effective tool for the exit of private equity or venture capital, an efficient and liquid market for investors and a source of diversification in their portfolios.

This is how Jesús González, managing director of BME Growth, explained this market at the ASEAFI event “The value in small and medium-sized companies”.

Pre-Market Environment welcomes Zona Value and adds Deloitte as a partner

Zona Value joins this training programme designed to help growth companies access the financial markets. Zona Value, founded in 2010 and based in Valencia, is an advice, training and selected financial products marketplace that plans to make its debut in the capital markets, to gain visibility and international projection in countries such as Mexico, Chile, Colombia, Peru and the United States.

Further, Deloitte Legal joins as a partner to the Pre-Market Environment. This incorporation will enrich the training offering that this program provides to the 17 companies already registered.
