

KEY INDICATORS November 2022

Two BME Growth companies shortlisted for the European Small and Mid-Cap Awards

These awards, created in 2013 by the European Commission and the Federation of European Securities Exchanges, aim to promote best practices and highlight the best European Small and Mid-Sized Companies.

EiDF and LLYC, companies listed on BME Growth, have been nominated in the “Rising Star” and “Star of 2022” categories respectively. Further, ECOENER, listed on the Spanish Stock Exchange, will also compete for the award in the “International Star” category.

The winners will be revealed at a special ceremony taking place on 29th November 2022 in Prague.

More and more SMEs and technological start-ups are interested in the Pre-Market Environment as a prelude to listing on the markets.

Four new companies with a markedly disruptive profile have joined this BME initiative, which now includes 24 companies.

ONALABS, a biotechnology company whose patented technology allows the measurement of bioanalytes through sweat and skin. LUDIUM is a company with R&D and technology for cloud adoption and interactive application streaming. VAMOS is committed to the mission of reinventing end-to-end car ownership through technology, data, and customer experience. Finally, V2C designs and manufactures e-chargers for electric vehicles, which effectively reduce charging time and costs.

BME and the CNMV organized a forum highlighting the advantages of being listed on the Stock Exchange

This forum, held in Barcelona on November 8, aimed to bring the capital markets closer to growing companies under the heading “Opportunities on securities markets for the Catalan companies”.

“Listing on markets like BME Growth provides an advantage in terms of access to financing and brings a notoriety that is very difficult to achieve for private companies with the same characteristics” was the unanimous conclusion of the speakers who participated in a round table about SME Growth Markets.

10th anniversary of the REITs in Spain

Over the last 10 years, REITs have made a positive contribution to maintaining and reorganising the balance and value of real estate activities in the Spanish economy. A sub-sector that, for more than a decade now, has contributed around 10% of total GDP.

To commemorate the anniversary, on 28 October CESINE/Metros2 organised a conference held at the Madrid Stock Exchange Palace with the participation of the main players in the sector, including BME Growth, the leading market for this type of company in Europe, with 80 REITs listed on it.
